J'AI MAL À MON FOLKLORE

Release date May 31 2024 (La Compagnie du Nord)

Montreal, May 22, 2024 - J'ai mal à mon folklore, the sixth album by trad trio De Temps Antan, comes in a special context, as the group celebrates its 20th anniversary this year! To mark this festive milestone, the group is releasing a very solid album, based on a desire to push the complicity of its members even further.

For the production of this album, the three musicians met at the charming Studio de la Côte Jaune in Saint-Côme. They recorded all the tracks by playing simultaneously in the same room, in a highly vulnerable musical environment, giving the album a distinctive and unique sound. This approach had already been explored during the recording of their previous album, Pesant, which received great support from the public and broadcasters, even being nominated at the Gala de l'ADISQ. The band also chose a sound aesthetic reminiscent of 70s rock and progressive rock bands: all instruments received additional sound treatment with amplifiers during recording, and ribbon microphones were used. This asserts the trio's raw, original aural signature.

Featuring 10 tracks, J'ai mal à mon folklore is a bridge to further connect with audiences in Quebec and beyond. It includes four songs from the traditional Quebec repertoire and two from popular song (Aglaré by Lionel Daunais and Le Reel de piasses by JF LaMothe), rearranged in the De Temps Antan style. The four original instrumental trad pieces will appeal to local audiences as well as those in English-speaking Canada, the U.S., the U.K., Ireland and Scandinavia, among others.
